REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

1. Election/Restriction

5        This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

1. the specifics of a repairing method for a liquid crystal display panel wherein the second pressure applied to the display panel is equal to 10        the third pressure, which comprises a first embodiment (claim 13);

2. the specifics of a repairing method for a liquid crystal display panel wherein the second pressure applied to the display panel is smaller than the third pressure, which comprises a second embodiment 15        (claim 14).

The species are indenpent or distinct because they are patentably distinct from one another.

20        Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C.121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-12 are generic.

25        Response:

Applicant hereby elects species 1 in response to the above restriction requirement. The claim readable upon the elected species is claim 13.
